FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Plaintiff's Business and Trademarks

8. Colur World is the exclusive owner of all right, title and interest in and to a trademark consisting of the color pink (the "COLOR PINK Mark"), as well as the word mark PINK NITRILE (the "PINK NITRILE Mark"), for use with "gloves for medical and dental use, made of nitrile” (the “Goods”). The COLOR PINK Mark and the PINK NITRILE Mark may be referred to herein collectively as the “PINK Marks”.

9. Colur World is the owner of the following United States trademark registrations:

- U.S. Registration No. 3,172,669 for the COLOR PINK Mark ();
- U.S. Registration No. 4,527,774 for the PINK NITRILE Mark;
- U.S. Registration No. 3,170,261 for the PINK NITRILE Mark.

See Exhibit A attached hereto for true and correct copies of the Registration Certificates for each of the above-referenced PINK Marks from the United States Patent and Trademark Office’s (“USPTO”) Trademark Status and Document Retrieval system.

10. The PINK Marks are valid and subsisting.

11. Colur Word, on its own and through its numerous licensees and related companies, has made continuous and exclusive use of its distinctive PINK Marks in the marketing and sale of the Goods throughout the United States since at least as early as 2005.

12. Since 2007, Colur World has licensed the right to use the PINK Marks to the world’s largest and most prominent manufacturers and distributors of gloves in the medical and dental fields. Colur World’s licensees jointly own 60% of the market share in the medical and dental gloves industry.

13. Colur World generates millions of dollars annually in connection with the PINK Marks.

14. Colur World and its licensees have spent a substantial amount of time, energy and resources marketing, promoting, advertising and selling products under the PINK Marks.

15. As a result of this longstanding, exclusive and continuous marketing, promotion, advertisement and sale of products under the PINK Marks, and adherence to high standards of quality control, the PINK Marks have met with extraordinary public and trade acceptance and have acquired substantial goodwill and trademark distinctiveness in the minds of the relevant trade and public as an indicator of a single source for the Goods sold under the PINK Marks.

16. Each package of nitrile gloves sold by licensees that display the PINK Marks, at a minimum, display the “®” notice symbol in connection with the PINK NITRILE Mark and each package provides written notice informing purchasers that “The COLOR PINK is a Registered Trademark of Colur World, LLC”, thereby putting the public on actual and constructive notice of Colur World’s rights in and to the registrations of the PINK Marks.

17. As a result of its longstanding and continuous marketing, promotion, advertisement, and sale of products under the PINK Marks, the relevant trade and the public have come to immediately associate the PINK Marks with Colur World and to expect goods bearing the PINK Marks to have a connection or association with Colur World.

18. Colur World has vigilantly policed and enforced its rights so as to prevent any unauthorized use of the PINK Marks. For example, Colur World has filed separate infringement actions in Federal Court, which have ended favorably for Colur World and the Defendants taking licenses to the PINK Marks. Colur World has also enforced its rights by sending cease and desist letters to known infringers and filing oppositions and cancellations with the USPTO against infringing trademark applications and registrations.

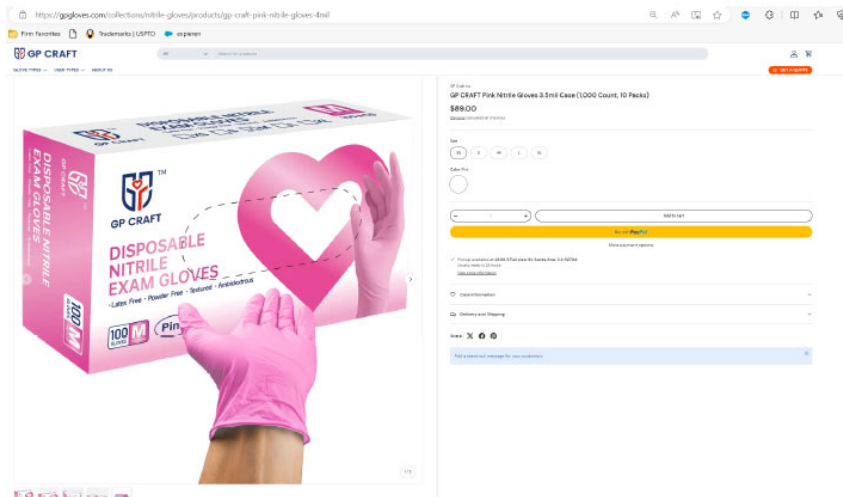

Defendant’s Infringing Conduct

19. Upon information and belief, Defendant is a worldwide provider of gloves for medical use made of nitrile, among other products. See <https://gpgloves.com/pages/about-us>.

20. Notwithstanding Colur World's prior and well-established common law and federal statutory rights in the PINK Marks, and with at least constructive notice and/or actual notice, Defendant has adopted and used the PINK Marks on nitrile medical and dental gloves, as well as its related marketing and promotion of such goods in United States commerce.

21. Defendant unlawfully uses an imitation or confusingly similar iteration of the PINK Marks (the "Infringing Marks") directly on its packaging for its nitrile examination gloves, which it sells, offers for sale, produces, and distributes without the prior authorization of Colur World (the "Infringing Products").

22. Samples of the Infringing Products bearing the PINK Marks are reproduced below:

See, e.g., <https://gpgloves.com/products/gp-craft-pink-nitrile-gloves-4mil>.

23. Defendant unlawfully markets, offers for sale, and sells the Infringing Product through its own website using the Infringing Marks. In fact, at the time Plaintiff filed their initial complaint, over half of the nitrile glove products that Defendant offered for sale on its website were Infringing Products, presented to consumers with the unauthorized and unlawful use of the PINK Marks, as depicted below:

See <https://gpgloves.com/pages/nitrile-gloves-1>.

24. Defendant's use of the PINK Marks, and specifically the COLOR PINK Mark, is clearly intended to trade on the goodwill of Colur World.

25. Colur World never consented to Defendant's use of the PINK Marks.

26. Defendant targets the same consumers, or substantially the same consumers, as Colur World, namely medical and dental entities. Defendant also sells the Infringing Product at a comparable price to that of Colur World's Goods.

27. Defendant's unlawful adoption and use of the PINK Marks violates Colur World's rights in the PINK Marks and is likely to cause confusion, mistake, or deception as to the source, association, affiliation or sponsorship of the Infringing Product. Ordinary consumers will mistakenly believe that Defendant's goods are manufactured, distributed, owned, sponsored, or approved by Colur World.

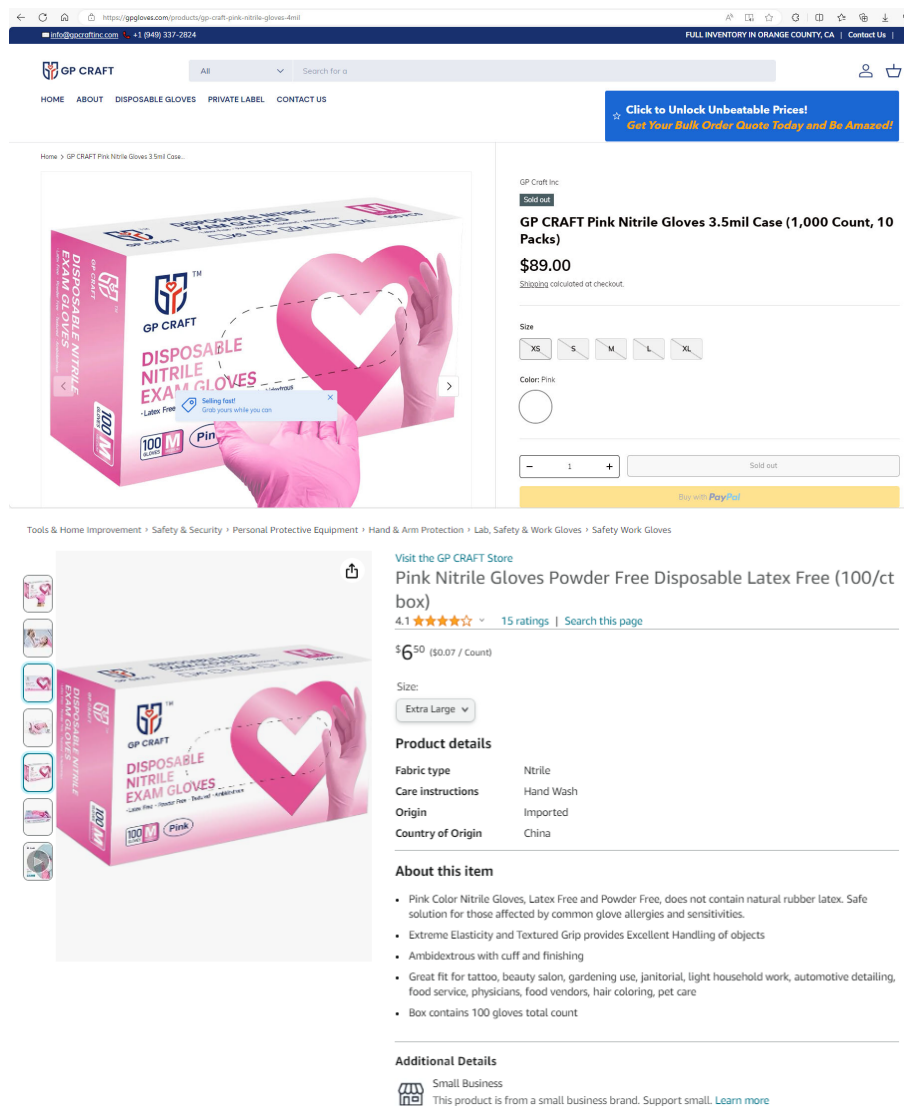

28. Defendant's use of the PINK Marks wrongfully implies an affiliation between Colur World and Defendant, or sponsorship by Colur World of Defendant's goods. Colur World sent a cease-and-desist letter, dated March 12, 2024, to Defendant placing Defendant on actual notice of its infringement of Colur World's intellectual property rights and instructing Defendant to cease and desist immediately from any further use or plans to use the Infringing Product and the PINK Marks. A true and correct copy of the same is attached hereto as Exhibit B.

29. Colur World then sought to protect their rights in the PINK Marks by filing a lawsuit against the Defendant on April 11, 2024.¹ Shortly thereafter, Colur World engaged with a representative of Defendant to discuss a resolution to the matter without need for further litigation. Based on Defendant's representations, Colur World reasonably believed that no further intervention was necessary from the Court and did not prosecute the action further.

¹ The action was captioned Colur World, LLC v. GP Craft, Inc., 2:24-cv-1505-MAK. The case was dismissed without prejudice at [ECF 6].

30. Despite the notice provided by Colur World and an opportunity to resolve this matter without further litigation, Defendant has stopped communicating with the Plaintiff while they continue to willfully use the PINK Marks without Colur World's authorization and with the intent to infringe on Colur World's rights.

31. The Infringing Products continue to be offered for sale to physicians and for use as "exam gloves" as shown below:

The screenshot displays the GP CRAFT website's product page for 'GP CRAFT Pink Nitrile Gloves 3.5mil Case (1,000 Count, 10 Packs)'. The page features a large image of the product box, which is pink and white, with the GP CRAFT logo and text: 'DISPOSABLE NITRILE EXAM GLOVES', 'Latex Free', 'Selling fast! Grab yours while you can', '100 M', and 'Pink'. A smaller image shows a pair of pink nitrile gloves. The product is priced at $89.00, with a note that shipping is calculated at checkout. These Infringing Products can still be found at <https://gpgloves.com/products/gp-craft-pink-nitrile-gloves-4mil> and on Amazon.com.

32. Defendant's conduct was and is designed to trade upon the valuable goodwill and business reputation associated with the PINK Marks.

33. Colur World has been, is now, and will continue to be irreparably injured by Defendant, unless enjoined by this Court.

34. Given Defendant's continued and unlawful use of the PINK Marks and their failure to communicate regarding an extrajudicial resolution to this issue, Plaintiff Colur World has no remedy than to once again seek the aid and intervention of the Court.
